Re: United States v. Megan Stern gast,
25 Cr. 40 (VSB)

Your Honor:

Currently, Ms. Stern gast is still in Bedford Hills as her release has been delayed and there is no information about a predicted release date. I write to request a change to the Court's March 6, 2025 order (ECF #28) paragraph 4 that states:

Seven days before the completion of Stern gast's state sentence, i.e., seven days before Stern gast is to be released from state custody, Stern gast's lawyer in this matter, Lisa Scolari, Esq., must file a letter on the docket in this case notifying the Government and the Court about Stern gast's release date.

I don't objection to providing notice but, it may be impossible to do so seven days in advance, as was the case due to the late information I received regarding her recent release date. Based on that experience, I don't believe that I will be able to learn the date seven days in advance. Therefore, I request the Court modify the Order to say:

Defense counsel shall notify the Court and government by filing a letter on ECF as soon as practicable after learning of the date of Ms. Stern gast's release from state custody.

Respectfully,
Lisa Scolari
